Syllabus for Composition

2020

Centenary Year

Monday 2 March – Friday 3 April
and
Thursday 16 April – Monday 25 May

Composition

Thursday 7th May 2020, 6:00 pm

Venue: Hampstead Garden Suburb Free Church, Central Square, NW11 7AG

Adjudicator: Dr Timothy Bowers

Public performance, adjudication and prize giving will take place on Thursday 7th May. All participants will be notified in writing with specific information relating to their entry shortly after the closing date. If a competitor has been a pupil of an Adjudicator in the six-months prior to the Festival, they should contact the Composition Section Head before entering a class judged solely by that Adjudicator.

Information and Rules of Entry

Compositions can be performed live or a CD recording provided on the day of adjudication. All compositions must be presented with a commentary to introduce the piece prior to its performance. Book prizes from The Music Master Publications Ltd will be awarded to the winners of each category, and an overall winner will be chosen to receive the title of 'North London Festival Best Composer' and will be presented with a certificate and trophy during the end of Festival concert on Tuesday 19th May 2020. To be eligible for H02 to H05, pieces must be composed using the fifteen Starting Points for Composition. These are included on page 4 of this section syllabus and can also be downloaded from the Composition page of the Festival website: www.northlondonfestival.org.uk.

The timings below refer to the maximum length of performance including the commentary presentation.

H01 - Fanfare Composition Prize

Thursday 7th May 2020, 6:00 pm

Venue: Hampstead Garden Suburb Free Church, Central Square, NW11 7AG

Adjudicator: Dr Timothy Bowers

Prize: £1000 cash

The winning fanfare will be performed at the North London Festival Centenary Concert, in November 2020 *

The North London Festival celebrates its Centenary in 2020. We are holding a one-off composition competition to mark our first 100 years, inviting composers to create a fanfare. This piece should commemorate the Festival's strong musical heritage and look forward to its next century. We are looking for a piece that is celebratory, creative and engaging, to reflect the grandeur, pomp and circumstance associated with the occasion.

- Open to composers of all ages
- For any orchestral ensemble, maximum 8 players, one to each part
- Performance time up to 15 minutes
- Scores may be recorded live or digitally

Adjudication and prize-giving will take place at the Hampstead Garden Suburb Free Church, Central Square, NW11 7AG on Thursday 7th May 2020.

The winner will be awarded a £1000 cash prize and the prize-winning piece will be performed (*at the discretion of the Trustees) to open the Centenary Concert in November 2020.

Entry fee - £50

Closing date for entries Friday 17th April 2020

How to enter

Please send your completed score with a recording (live or digital) to:

Starting Points for Composition

1. Compose a solo piece for the pianoforte – any style.
2. Compose a piece which explores counterpoint – free choice of instruments, but no more than five.
3. Compose a Pop Song - must include both chorus and verse.
4. Compose a piece for any stringed instrument – free choice.
5. Compose a piece which reflects an important feature of the Classical era (1750–1800).
6. Compose a piece which reflects an important feature of the Late Romantic era (1850–1900).
7. Compose a piece for three different instruments. Each instrument must belong to a different family.
8. Compose a piece which explores and challenges the playing techniques of a solo instrument of your choice.
9. Compose a piece with two contrasting sections.
10. Compose a piece which explores musical movements of the 20th century; for example, minimalism, serialism, aleatoric music etc.
11. Compose a soundtrack suitable for a film scene. This could be for a well-known film or an imaginary scene.
12. Compose a piece which represents a Jazz style (free choice).
13. Compose a percussion piece to celebrate an African harvest festival.
14. Compose a piece inspired by a poem. This could be a well-known poem, or a poem you've written yourself.
15. Compose a piece which brings together two different cultures.

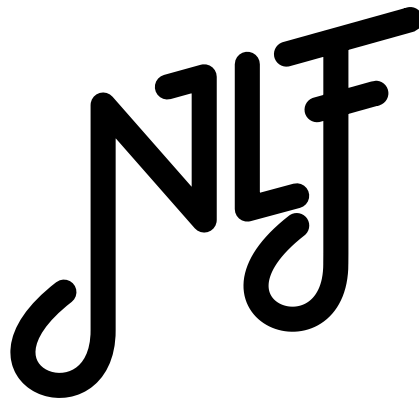

Building your Commentary

When writing your commentary please consider the three questions below:

1. What were the stimuli or starting points for your composition?
2. What compositional processes and developments did you explore/discover whilst composing your piece?
3. What challenges did you encounter relating to instruments, textures, and playing techniques?
